

ANDREW VIDICH Ph.D.

Brief Bio

Andrew Vidich, PhD, is an educator, international speaker, and author/editor of more than five books. His books include Love is a Secret (1990), critically acclaimed by the Institute of Noetic Sciences, which stated that "it provided a great service to readers interested in the deeper dimensions of mystical love." He has co-edited (multiple editors) a collection of writings of the twentieth century Spiritual Saint, Sant Kirpal Singh Ji entitled, The Spiritual Path: An Anthology of the Writings by Sant Kirpal Singh. He was a contributing author to The Heart of the Healer, an investigation into the nature of healing (1987), which sold more than twenty thousand copies, Light Upon Light : 5 Master Pathways to Awaken the Mindful Self. His newest book, co-authored with Art Stein, entitled, Let There Be Light: Experiencing Inner Light Across the World's Sacred Traditions.

Dr. Vidich has been an adjunct assistant professor of religion at Manhattan College in Riverdale, NY and at Iona College in New Rochelle where he taught courses in the nature and experience of religion, meditation, death and dying and Islamic studies. Dr. Vidich lectures and presents experiential workshops at conferences, radio and TV shows, colleges and book stores throughout the world on a variety of topics. He is the co-founder of The Interfaith Council of New York and member of the Board of Directors of a Meditation Center in Amityville NY. He has been studying meditation for 44 years under the guidance of three world renowned meditation teachers.