 USE THIS IF YOU ARE NOT PARTICIPATING ONLINE*

Join us for an adult version of summer reading this June 29 through August 9. Whether you are devouring a bestseller, listening to an audiobook, exploring a new area library, or attending one of our programs, every activity counts. Keep track of your summer progress, challenge yourself, and possibly win some fun prizes.

PARTICIPATE:

Complete activities to get points. Certain point totals enter you for prizes. But most of all, enjoy... there is no forced reading, no reviews, and very few limits!

ACTIVITIES

Read (unlimited #)

- This includes a physical book, ebook, graphic novel, audiobook, etc., any genre
- This is on the honor system. There's no reviews or quizzes, but please be honest

Attend a Program (limit 3)

- There are three summer reading programs you can attend
- Go to <https://attend.finkelsteinlibrary.org/events?v=grid&d=2026-05-21> to find more information and register. Look for 'SUMMER'

Scavenger Hunt (limit 1 time)

- Complete our in-library scavenger hunt and you might unearth rare and expensive (not really) magnets or stickers and learn where things are located in the library in the process. Completion also scores you a Finkelstein Library pen. Useful for keeping field notes!

Visit Another Library (limit 4)

- Check out a different library in (or out of) our system and log it as an activity (limit 4)
- Let us know where you visited in your log. Again, honor system, but feel free to take a selfie or photo and send it to us (fmlref@rcls.org)
